

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: It's probably together, I imagine, is what it means, it would to me.

SENATOR ROBAK: It means what? Would you repeat that, please.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: It would mean together, to me.

SENATOR ROBAK: Together, what?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: In cooperation.

SENATOR ROBAK: But who is together?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Who...whoever that you're talking about.

SENATOR ROBAK: (Laugh.) I want you to define in cooperation. I want to have that in definition.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Well, I just told you, Senator, it has to do with the retailer and the wholesaler in...

SPEAKER BAACK: One minute.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: ...in cooperation.

SENATOR ROBAK: And so in cooperation they decide, probably the retailer and the wholesaler could decide, are you talking with the commission?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: With...in cooperation with the...

SENATOR ROBAK: The commission could say that you may have...

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: ...with the rules.

SENATOR ROBAK: ...you could have wine sampling then?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Not to the general public you couldn't, no.

SENATOR ROBAK: Even if they make up the rules.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: No.
